

CONROE ISD Education Foundation

Scholarships for Future and Current Educators

The Conroe ISD Education Foundation, Inc. has a single mission: To support the advancement of the teaching field in the Conroe Independent School District.

Formed in 2001, the Foundation provides scholarships to Conroe ISD educators who wish to continue their own education and to graduating seniors desiring to enter the field of k-12 education. The Foundation chooses scholarship recipients based on stated criteria through a formal application process. During the life of the Foundation to date, approximately $300,000 in scholarships has been awarded.

Funds administered by the Foundation consist solely of donations received from businesses, individuals and organizations, and through honorariums and memorials such as the Gerald Irons, Sr. Scholarship Fund and the Mary Bach Memorial Scholarship Fund. Your donation to the Conroe ISD Education Foundation will enhance the quality of Conroe ISD by supporting current and future educators. Confirm your commitment to Conroe ISD and its students and educators by contributing directly through payroll deduction.
